

Sorority & Fraternity Life Recognition Expectations

- The recognition of each fraternity or sorority at the University of Kansas must be maintained through the organization's adherence to all policies and procedures further outlined and all other related governing documents and policies maintained by the university, including but not limited to the KU Code of Student Rights and Responsibilities and the appropriate Governing Council Constitution, Bylaws and Policies.
- The University of Kansas may suspend or remove the recognition of any fraternity or sorority as necessary. Suspension or removal of recognition shall mean the loss of all rights and privileges further explained. The University may suspend certain privileges of recognized fraternities or sororities as necessary and appropriate.
- All social fraternities and sororities, local or national, are required to apply for, obtain, and retain membership in a recognized Governing Council. Membership in a Governing Council requires that the organization be in compliance with all rules and activities of that body.
